Relationships one to one have a lot of problems, we fixed it making unidirectional relations.

Messages and folders give us a collection of problems, after two weeks trying everything, the unique solution that works was that folders and messages have the actor id, not the actor itself.

Some relations have transient problems, to fixed it, we made cascade relations.